

 acp The Orange County ACP Presents

A Tour of the Orange County Emergency Operations Center

Presented by Donna Boston, Emergency Manager with the Orange County Sheriff's Department Management Bureau

The County's EOC is located at Loma Ridge and is maintained in a constant state of readiness by the Emergency Management Bureau to respond to emergencies including earthquakes, tsunamis, civil disturbances, energy crises, nuclear power plant emergencies, terrorism and acts of war.

Agenda: Noon arrival
12:15 Lunch
12:30 ACP Business
01:00 Orange County EOC Tour

This is an excellent tour and a unique opportunity Don't Miss it! Be on time!

*Space is limited to 45 ~ NO WALK INs permitted
No photography or cell phone usage (no signal)
Park in Lower Lot ONLY*

NEW LOCATION!

2644 Santiago Canyon Road, Silverado, CA 92676

Wednesday, February 14, 2007
Noon to 3:00 PM

Lunch included: Members $10, Non-Members $20

Register by FEB 7—Send RSVP to susan.zielan@experian.com

Priority will be given to ACP Members - Directions will be sent following RSVP