

acp The Orange County ACP Presents USAID: Its Role in Disaster Mitigation and Assistance

Mary Ann will provide an overview of the organizational structure of USAID/OFDA, their mandate, and their work. She will delve into the relationship between planning, preparation, and response implementation, including individual sector responses punctuated by pictures of field response in Africa and Bangladesh.

Presented by Mary Ann Marks, one of San Diego's own working as a contractor with USAID Office of Foreign Disaster Assistance Bureau

USAID provides economic and humanitarian assistance in more than 100 countries to provide a better future for all.
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE
The U.S. Agency for International Development

On Sept. 4, 1961, Congress passed the Foreign Assistance Act, which reorganized the foreign assistance programs, separated military and non-military aid, and mandated the creation of an agency to administer economic assistance programs. On Nov 3, 1961, President John F. Kennedy established the U.S. Agency for International Development.
